

Curriculum Link

Environmental Education

Curriculum unit: Waste, Environmental Pollution, Production and Consumption.

- Connection of the increased waste with environmental and social problems (environmental pollution, consuming habits, obesity, diseases).
- Identification of products and packing that are friendly to the environment.
- Suggestion of ways which help to reduce waste.
- Adoption of habits that do harm the environment.

Greek Language and Literature

Curriculum unit: Literacy study regarding environmental subjects.

- Writing ecological code, stories, poems, slogans, ads, comics, posters, songs, letters and newsletter about waste management.
- Creating crafts with ecological messages about waste management (bookmarks, magnets and cockades)

Health Education

Curriculum unit: creating active citizens, development of safe and healthy life.

- Culture of such consuming habits that reduce waste: buying options, transfer of shopping, consuming and waste management.

Technology and Art

Curriculum unit: Three-dimensional structures

- Creation of crafts made of waste materials.

Social Sciences

Curriculum unit: Healthy diet

- Analysis of the meaning ‘healthy diet’ and relate it to pupils’ personal choices.
- Suggestion of ways in which pupils can improve their choices in relation to food.
- Enjoy the preparation of a healthy breakfast and adopt such attitudes that promote a healthy way of life.

ICT

Curriculum unit: Creating movies, Power Point presentations, Excel worksheets, newsletters, posters and crafts.

- Creation of short movies about school activities related to waste management (visit to the supermarket, interviewing customers, preparing a healthy breakfast, creating crafts).
- Presentation of survey results.
- Publishing a newsletter.
- Creation of posters and Word documents related to waste management and recycling processes.

Mathematics

Curriculum unit: Fractions and Graphs

- Record and analyze data, organize and present survey results by using fractions and graphs.

English

Curriculum unit: English as an international language through product’s labels

- Recognize product labels of Fair Trade and Organic products in English language.
- Create slogans about waste management in English language.